

What it's FITCE?

FITCE is the Forum for European ICT &
Media Professionals

What are its aims and values?

Developments

Keeping in touch with leading edge ICT developments.

Experience

Ensuring that our members benefit from the experience acquired by other members in all ICT fields.

Business

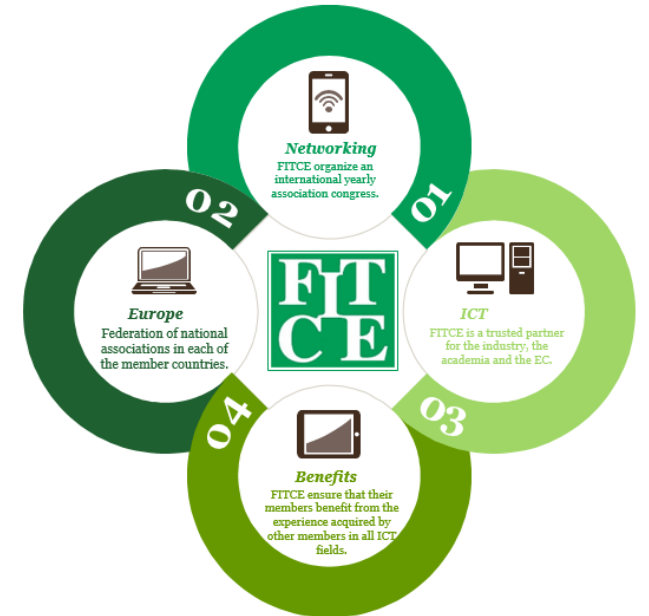

Building strong cultural and business ties between European ICT professionals.

Careers

Ensuring that Young Professionals are able to use FITCE as a valued resource in their career development.

www.fitce.eu

The Forum for European ICT &
Media Professionals

01 Leaders

Key note speakers will tell you the important developments in the industry from the business leadership perspective

02 Experience

You will hear first hand what researchers in your field have to say about the latest developments in our industries, opening your eyes to new opportunities and placing new ideas in an industry context.

03 Business

Make contact with other players in our industry, who like you are trying to create a better communications world and are experiencing similar challenges.

FITCE and Young Professionals

Dynamic organization
Training
ICT developments
Networking platform
Innovate and strategic initiatives
Keeping in touch with leading edge ICT developments
More than 10 countries and more than 10k members
Always wants to strike for the best outcome for our members
Annual Congress MADRID 2017!

Why is FITCE interesting?

FITCE is a trusted partner for the industry, academia and the EC, through our commitment to society enhancement through a greater adoption of ICT

FITCE organize an international yearly association congress, improving information and knowledge exchange, communication, networking and relationships among members.

FITCE is an association that offers you a network of international ICT and Media experts

FITCE is a federation of national associations in each of the member countries. Membership is open to all European countries

The Forum for European ICT & Media Professionals